THE HISTORY OF DR. SCHENCK'S OWN CASE, AND HOW HE WAS CURED OF CONSUMPTION.

Many years ago, while residing in Philadelphia, I had progressed gradually into the last stage of Pulmonary Consumption. All hopes of my recovery being dissipated, I was advised by my physician, Dr. Parrish, to remove into the country.
Moreover, New-Jersey, being my native place, I was removed thither. My father and all his family had died there, and of Pulmonary Consumption. On my arrival I was put to bed, where I lay for many weeks in what was deemed a hopeless condition. Dr. Thornton, who had been my father's family physician, and had attended him in his last illness, was called to see me. He thought my case entirely beyond the reach of medicine, and decided that I must die, and gave me one week to arrange my temporal affairs. In this apparently hopeless condition, I heard of the remedies I now make and will. It seemed to me that I could feel them working their way, and penetrating every nerve, fiber, and tissue of my system. My lungs and liver put on new action, and the morbid matter which for years had accumulated and irritated the different organs of the body, was eliminated, the tubercles on my lungs ripened, and I expectorated from my lungs as much as a cat of yellow, offensive matter every morning. As this ex-pectorated matter subsided the fever abated, the pain left my cough ceased to harass me, the exhausting night sweats were no longer known, and I had refreshing sleep, to which I had long been a stranger. My appetite now began to return, and at times I found it difficult to restrain myself from eating too much; with this return of health I gained in strength, and am now healthy. I am now a healthy man, with a large head of hair in the middle lobe of the right lung, and the lower lobe healed with complete adhesion of the pleura.
The left lung is sound, and the lower lobe of the right one is wholly healthy condition.

THE PULMONIC SYRUP is one of the most valuable medicines known. It is a nutritive, powerfully tonic and heating in itself. It contains no opium, yet loosens the phlegm in the bronchial tubes, and nature throws it off with little exercise. One bottle frequently cures an ordinary cold; but it will be well first to take a dose of SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS, to cleanse the stomach. The PULMONIC SYRUP is readily digested and absorbed into the blood, to which it imparts its healing properties. It is one of the best preparations of iron in use; it is a powerful tonic of itself; and when the SEAWEED TONIC dissolves the mucus in the stomach, and is carried off by the aid of the MANDRAKE PILLS, a healthy flow of gastric juice, good appetite, and good digestion follow.

THE SEAWEED TONIC is a stimulant, and none other is required when it is used. It is pure and pleasant; no bad effects, as when using Bourbon Whisky, which disorders the stomach, torments the liver, looks up all the secretions, turns the blood into water, dropsy sets in, and the patient dies dis-easily. Bourbon Whisky is recommended now-a-days by almost every physician. Many patients who visit my room, both male and female, are stupified with this poison. The relief is temporary. If they cough, they take a little whisky; if they feel weak and feeble, they take a little whisky; if they cannot go to sleep, they take a little whisky—and they go on in this way, requiring more and more, until they are glibbly and digestive powers are completely destroyed, and lose their appetite for food. No one was ever cured of Consumption by this process, where cavities have been formed in the lungs.
A little stimulant is frequently beneficial to consumptives, such as pure brandy or good wines; in many cases, London porter or brown stout—but Bourbon whisky hastens on, instead of curing Consumption.

The MANDRAKE PILLS may be taken with entire safety by all ages and conditions, producing all the good results that can be obtained from calomel, or any of the mercurial medicines, and without any of their hurtful or injurious results.
They carry out matters loosened and dissolved by my SEA-WEED TONIC and PULMONIC SYRUP. It will be seen that all three of my medicines are needed in most cases to cure Consumption.

PRICE OF THE PULMONIC SYRUP AND SEAWEED TONIC BOTTLE $1.50 PER BOTTLE, OR $7.50 THE HALF DOZEN. MAN-DRAKE PILLS 25 CENTS PER BOX.

IS TREASON A CRIME?

Efforts of the President to have the Question Settled.

Interesting Correspondence with Judge Chase.

Difficulties in the Way of Trials for Treason.

WASHINGTON, Thursday, Nov. 9, 1865.
It is known that President Johnson has expressed the greatest anxiety to bring to a legal issue the question whether treason is a crime, and whether it can as such be punished.
The following from to-day's National Republican is believed to be substantially correct: The President has not only consulted his constitutional advisers, his Cabinet and the proper law officers of the Government on the subject, but he has also invited to this council some of the most eminent constitutional and criminal lawyers in the land. Among these may be named Chief-Justice Chase, who came here from Ohio some time in August last, at the special invitation of the President, to consult on the general subject of trials for treason. Subsequently, about the first of October last, President Johnson addressed a letter to Chief-Justice Chase, informing him that that District in which he was residing had been declared by the President to be a District of the United States, and that the Chief-Justice of either of the Associates of the Supreme Court would hold a term of the Circuit Court there during the Autumn or early Winter for the trial of cases. About the middle of October Chief-Justice Chase replied to the President. He positively stated that his Circuit Court for the District of Virginia, either to be presided over by himself or one of his associates, would not hold a term during the Autumn or early Winter. He stated that the regular term authorized by the Constitution commence this year on the 27th of November, the present month, only one week before the term of the Supreme Court, when all the judges are expected to be present, allowing but one week for the Circuit Court to commence its session, and in the opinion of the Chief-Justice, would be too short a term for the transaction of any very important business. But the Chief-Justice adds that, were the facts otherwise, he so much doubts the propriety of holding a Circuit Court of the United States in a District which has been declared by the Executive and Legislative Departments of the National Government to be in rebellion, and therefore subjected to martial law before the complete restoration of their regular relations with the Nation and the surrender of the military by the civil Administration, that he would be unwilling to hold such courts in such States within his circuit, which incidentally Virginia, according to the Chief-Justice, has been declared to be in rebellion. The Chief-Justice expressed to the President the opinion that a civil court in a district under martial law can only act by the sanction and under the supervision of the military power; and he positively asserts that he could not think that it becomes the Justices of the Supreme Court to exercise jurisdiction under such conditions.

THE UNITED STATES AND THE ARGENTINE REPUBLIC.

Presentation of the New Minister to the President—The Address and Reply—Remarks of the two Countries Reviewed.

WASHINGTON, Thursday, Nov. 9, 1865.
Col. Don Domingo F. Sarmiento was to-day introduced to the President by the Secretary of State, and delivered his credentials as Minister Plenipotentiary and Envoy Extraordinary of the Argentine Republic. He made the following remarks on the occasion: The letter of credence appointing me Minister Plenipotentiary and Envoy Extraordinary of the Argentine Republic to the United States of America, directed to the President of the United States, Abraham Lincoln, whose death took place about the time of my arrival here. Renewed now, in accordance with diplomatic custom, and in the presence of the President, I am, on placing it in your hands, proudly and gratefully, and with the Argentine people received the account of that tragic event, and also to congratulate you upon the honor of securing the prosperity of noble victim in the work of securing the prosperity of the Argentine Republic. Our own Government was formerly your Excellency knows, part of the people who formerly constituted the vice-royalty of Buenos Ayres, and less by the will of statesmen, and more by the circumstances of the time, and the events, the revolutionary circumstances and a federal organization constituted. The only step which has been the result of deliberate forethought was to conform to the wishes of the Argentine people, and to take as a lesson and model, results as you know, the Argentine people, and to combine the practical workings, Story and your other commentators are consulted and late Republic, and the Argentine people, and to their doctrines followed, as are the decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States in analogous cases in the noble mission of the Argentine Republic, to carry out which the recent war has given to disputed points here barren for our own Government. It is well understood, moreover, that it would not be to adopt more on the basis on which it rests here, by developing the intelligence of the people there by a system of general education. To the names of Washington,
